

Happy be Lucky.

A Catalogue of Books to be sold by Lottery, Whence, or how above a Shilling, and the Fortunate Lot will prove that on the Adventurers may repair to D. Newman at the Blind Bear in Rybel Lane; where the Lots will be drawn the next Fall-Day.

1. Horus Pueri: Or Horae Puerorum. A Treatise containing and fully explaining the whole Art of Ecclesiastical and State Jurisdiction in the North, the latest, and glorious, a North American, and a Foreignizing in the South.
2. Regula Sancti Henrici: Or a Collection of the Canons which authorize Bishops to wear Black Cloaks and Black Bells, when they are to take care of other Men's Souls: Compiled by T. ———, and Dedicated to the Reverend Father, by what you please, but God's H. Ld. Bp. of L—.
3. Hoc est Corpus: Or Seate-Transubstantiation. A learned and elaborate Treatise (stolen from the most able Popish Writers) wonderfully proving the Miraculous Conversion of a Lawless Convention into a Legal Parliament, by the Irish Saints, but an English Devil.
4. Non est Inventus: Or an Answer to a Treatise entituled, A True and Faithful Relation of the New Year ultra of a Latinianarian Conscience; Dedicated to the R. ——— Chaplain at N——.
5. Annus Divisibilis: Or the Year 1694 divided into 8 Quarters, demonstrated upon Two late Acts of Parliament: The one for 4 Quarters, and the other for a Levied Tax; The other for a Quarterly Payments of Levied Tax: Published for the Satisfaction of all Free En-————, and each can be found.

6. Infelix Arbor: Or John Le-Mot Honeywood's Legacy to the House of Commons, being Two pieces a piece to all his Brother-Peers. buy each of them an H—r, That they may speedily follow Example. Opus Posthumum.

7. Art of drawing Teeth with Gunpowder: An extraordinary Invention lately discovered by an Ennis killing Captain; and now made Publick for the Benefit of all turtle Operators and Corn-cutters, By Sir Humphry G----.

8. Dulcis odor Lucri, &c. Or the Justice and Reasonableness of Licensing 10000 Bandy Houses, in order to raise a Million Fund, for carrying on a Villainous (as it should be) War against France: Made out of a Cucumber, being a dainty fine elegant Piece, By a Learned Honour.

9. Fus Belgicum, &c. Justification of the present Imposition of Tunnage and Poundage, Customs Taxes and Polls, excessive Fines, illegal Imprisonments, and all the Arbitrary Proceedings complained of, without Cause, in the late Reigns, and actually practised in this. By a Pensioned Conventioner and sworn Enemy of his Country, Licens'd by Sir G. ----: Printed by R. Baldwin, and are to be Sold in St. Stephens Chappel near Westminster-Hall.

10. Genesis Reformata, i. e. Moses whipt into a Hand-Basket, or Genesis reduced to a Chaos, being an excellent Translation done from the Original, by the Master of the Charter-House.

11. Dimidium plus Toto: Or the Art of telling clipt Money, when we can catch it; a very concise Piece, by Hozan Mozan, &c. Published for the Benefit of all Sorts of Persons in the Kingdom, but especially for the City of London and Lambard-Street.

12. Petitio Principii: An elaborate Treatise to prove War the only Way and Means to support the Gospel of Peace; or that Sanguis Martyrum and Semen Protestantis Ecclesie are inconsistent Terms. By the Reformed Snielt: or the London Drudges.

13. Arcana Imperii: Or the French King's Cabinet-Council unlock'd: Being a rare Mysterious Piece, Shewing the Ways and Means of buying Towns without Money, maintaining Armies without Necessaries, feeding his Subjects without Bread, with many other ther admirable State Politicks : Dedicated to the House of Commons with an humble Petition, That the like Arts may be discovered and speedily put in Practice here for the Publick Good ; lest it should be too late, and our Invention fail us, when all our Money is gone.

14. Arithmetick : Or Arithmetick a fine Science, or John Partridge's Skill of multiplying 2256 by 6, to prove that on May the 20th and 22th 1683, the perjured Salamanca Doctor had 13536 Stripes upon his brawny Shoulders. Dedicated to Robin Dog.

15. Monoculus : Or Dr. L----- with one Eye (and that none of the best) seeing more Piracy in Privateering, than the Learned Dr. O----- with both. A Prayer especially for all Seamen in Service under the present Government, whereunto are added certain Devotions and Prayers suited for their Use, when they go to be hanged.

16. Malum necessarium : Or a Pea to keep open the Wife of Schism. Dedicated to Don Juan Alcantara, the Great Inventor of the Baroccean Manuscript.

17. Fura Perjuræ, &c. Or Perjury no Sin. A very necessary Treatise in these Times, for the Satisfaction of all guilty Consciences, very learnedly and elaborately Performed by the Master of the Temple.

18. Messalina : A very pleasant Treatise, Recommended to all Ladies, especially about the Court ; Wherein is clearly proved, that a Woman lying with a hundred Husbands de facto, doth not Cuckold her Husband de jure. By Dr. Sherlock's Wife.

19. Nemo tenetur ad impossibile : Or an Apology for Non-payment of Taxes, they being too Many and too Mighty for our Purles. By a Lover of his Country.

20. Ora omnia, &c. Or the Belgick Leviathan ; A Treatise showing the Instrumental Cause of all the intolerable Miseries, that have lately befallen these once Three flourishing Kingdoms. Dedicated to the Stadtholder.

22. Hyphon Proteron : Or Martha's part preferred before Mary's ; A Sermon lately preached by the Vicar of Bray, and Dedicated to the Children of this Generation.

21. Ego non sum ego: A large Treatise learnedly proving it lawful to assert and use the equivocating, relerving and depoling Doctrines, and all other the worst Principles and Practices of the Papists, provided it be done demurely, and at least under Presence of advancing the Protestant Religion. By Simon the Pilgrim.

23. Πολυκεταστίν. A Curious fine Cobweb Piece, to prove that it is much better to live under five hundred Tyrants, than one lawful King. By a Republican Club: Published to shew what they would be at.

24. Intus & in Cute: Or the Anatomy of a Poisoned Parliament-man, Shewing 1st. his Original Disposition or Propensity to such a Place, from a Necessity of Protection from his Creditors; 2<sup>dly</sup>. his Methods of acquiring it, viz. by wheedling, fawning, cringing, scraping, swearing, lying, &c. and 3<sup>dly</sup>. his Behaviour in it, which is to sell his Country to reimburse himself, &c. together with some Politick Reflections on such as pawn their Liberties and Properties for the Sake of Roast Beef and Strong Drink: Recommended to all the pretended Friends of England.

25. Speculum Religium: Or the Description of a strange Mixture, wherein a Williamite cannot look, but he will either see a Knave's or a Fool's Face,

26. Politicks atque Poëtis quidlibet, &c. Or the History of the cutting of the Throats, of Men, Women and Children, and burning Towns in all parts of England, in one Day, by five hundred starv'd Irish, who were almost frighted out of their Wits, as not knowing where to hide themselves.

27. Eques aversus: Or an Art to make all Persons acknowledge, That a Man faceth his Enemy all the time that he runs away, by sitting with his Face towards the Horse's Tail. A Dutch piece, very useful in time of War, and Dedicated to the Mighty General of the Confederate Forces.

P E T I T I O N S.

1. The humble Petition of Dr Fowler, That the Court upon the Dial-Plate at Cripplegate (being a great Offence to the Eyes of weak Bre-Brethren, when they gape to see what a clock it is) may be effectually raised, and the Figure XII put in its place.

(57)

2. The humble Petition of Sir William Cooper, and others, to the Honourable the House of Commons, That whereas many of the Honourable Members of the House are shamefully in Debt, and their Creditors are an Eye-sore to them, notwithstanding their Privileges, All the Members of the said Honourable House may from henceforth be freely and clearly discharged of their Debts, or have full Liberty never to pay any.

3. The humble Petition of Sr. W. H-y-d to the Honourable House of Commons, That if the Wife of any Member of the said House (while her Husband is busied in the House) in contriving Ways and Means how to undo his Country (serve the King) shall, for want of due Benevolence, make him a Cuckold and get the Pox, it shall only be called a Rheumatism, and she shall be cleared at the publick Charge.

4. A Petition of Right presented to their Honours, by the Watermen and Carmen in and about the City of London wherein they set forth their Grievances, That by the Means and Encouragement of the encroaching House of Commons, their Rights and Privileges, contrary to the Fundamental Laws of this Kingdom, are manifestly invaded by the Licensed Hackney Coach-men.

5. The humble Petition of Dr. Titus Oats to the Honourable House of Commons, against Robin Hog alias Stephens, for Usurping his Profession, and endeavouring to monopolize his Salamanca Arts and Sciences of Impudence, Perjury, &c. Printed for the Author.

6. The humble Petition of Evidence Fuller, That though he had not Wit enough to make so great a Knave as he would; yet since his Miscarriage proceeded from an hearty Love to Villainy, and a devilish Devotion to the Government, he may be discharged out of Prison, and allowed a Pension, promising that upon his Releasement he will never rest till he hath found out greater Rogues than himself, and much fitter for the Service of the Government.

7. The humble Petition of the Souldiers and Seamen's Wives to both Houses of Parliament, That it may be speedily Enacted that they and their

their Children shall never be Hungry, seeing they are not able to endure their cries for Bread, when they have nothing to give them.

8. The Humble Petition of Miin Heer senting to Sr. William Ashurst Lord Mayor of London, That his Lordship would be pleased to spare him his Chaplain Stephens, because he is the fittest Man for him, they having been both of a Trade; promising that in lieu of him he will send his Lordship a Dutch Ambassador, who may be much more serviceable to him.

9. The Humble Petition of Dr. Littleton to the Right Honourable the Lords of the Privy Council. That an Order may be issued out to him to draw up an Information in Chancery against Mr. Bradshaw, it being the only sure way left to destroy him, the very Sight of whom is such a Plague to his Decemship, that he fears it will provoke him to put out his other Eye, that he may not be able to see his own Shame.

10. The humble Petition of the Poor in and about the Cities of London and Westminster. That since Money is grown so scarce, and their Society so numerous, that Begging will not maintain them, it may be lawful for them to Steal a little. Delivered at Kensington, and Signed by above 40000 Hands.

11. The Humble Petition of the Bankers in behalf of all Clippers and Coiners, That not only they be not farther prosecuted, but that they may be incorporated into a Society, with special Privileges and Encouragements for a speedy supply of Monies, which otherwise in a short time will be all gone.

Acts of Parliament.

1. An Act of Parliament, That whereas the Members of the House of Commons, for divers Reasons; are become ashamed to demand the ancient Allowance formerly paid by the respective Places for which they were elected, they shall from henceforth immediately upon the return of their Election be made Pensioners of the Crown; That instead of Representatives of their Countrey they may become the King's Servants, and so be enabled when they make any sweet Presents to lick their own Fingers.

2. An Act of Parliament, That whereas the numerous and liberal ral Pensions given to Members of the House of Commons cannot calm all their Spirits, but that some of them, upon particular Occasions, are very apt to grow mutinous, there be allowed ordinary the Yearly Sum of 200000 l. to his Majesty, to be distributed among them at his Discretion upon extraordinary Occasions, and above all Pensions by the name of Household.

3. An Act of Parliament, That the House of Commons be changed to Lumber-Store, and that the Members be removed thence and sent to London, and in their Room Pawn-Brokers, Appraisers and Sellers of Second-hand Goods; that the people who have parted with all their Goods, may know where to dispose of or sell the Furniture of their Houses.

4. An Act of Parliament, That Right shall be Wrong, and Wrong Right; that Truth shall be Lying, and Lying Truth; that the people who are starv'd here shall be reported to be starv'd in France; and that all the Barbarities committed by P. O. be charged upon the French King.

5. An Act of Parliament, That the French King shall restore the two thousand five hundred Merchants Ships and upwards, which he hath taken from us, under this penalty, that if he do not, he shall speedily lose or make away all the rest, and so utterly ruin his Privateers by leaving them no Prizes to take.

6. An Act of Parliament to make P. O. Invulnerable, that he may no more so shamefully run away, as he did at Lunden; as also to encourage him to carry on a Vigorous War against France.

7. An Act of Parliament, That P. O.'s Nose be pared on one Side; because it shadows his Brains, and stands in his Light, that he can neither see his Enemies, nor his proper Advantages.

Cases of Conscience and Queries.

1. Since Rebellion is forbidden by Divine Authority under pain of Damnation, as strictly and in as express Terms as any other grievous Sin, Whether we may not as lawfully Authorise men to perjure themselves, murder, whore, steal, bear false witness, or commit any other crying Sin, as to rebell against their lawful Sovereign.

2. Whe

Whether any House of Parliament can secure a Man from Dissipation, who in Obsequence to it violates the known Laws of God?
10. Whether that's properly called a Christian State, where they do, they Break Laws in direct Opposition to the Laws of God of him he will send his much more serviceable to His James's Health was proposed to be drunk

9. The Humble Petition of James, Mr. James did not pertinently the Lords of the Privy Council first resolved whether he acknowledged him to draw

being the neither of Law, though he seem not to approve of is such means they do not consent, that he thought parties what ever he do when he made this Complaint late of one of the Lords of all parties had got a scurvy

11. Whether it be not to work a Miracle, equal to any among the
the same in a Church, never were Sons of it?

a Council we must take to raise Six Millions next Year, our Money to be swallowed up this Year in the
and from thence to be transported to Holland?

may be what will become of the Vigorous War against France when ragements is gone?

time will be our Fund Merchants and Purchasers of Wines in the Extremity, be not like Aesop's Dog, who let go and lost the Substance to catch at the Shadow?

10. Whether Fleet Shepherd did not give a more satisfactory House of King James's Declaration than Dr. Whitmoor, when (King James's Declaration being produced) he hastily swore, That his the P. of O. had taken the right course to make no Declaration be believed, by not keeping the least stille of any of his own?

11. Whether our Weathercock Swearing Clergy would not cry out blessed Reformation, at their dear Dutch Saviour William HENRY R. O. calls King in 1688, should (to which he is in a fair way) fulfil the Old Proverb or Prophecy, viz, the King shall be like the Weathercock

As Henry the Eighth, destroyed Monasties and Cells,
So HENRY the Ninth, shall pull down Churches and Halls.

